

Attachement to Truth in Testimony

5. The Boeing Company is the world's leading aerospace company and operates in five principal segments: Commercial Airplanes (BCA); Boeing Defense, Space & Security (BDS), which comprises three segments -- Boeing Military Aircraft (BMA), Network & Space Systems (N&SS), Global Services & Support (GS&S) -- and Boeing Capital Corporation (BCC). Across these segments the Boeing Company receives a large number of federal contracts and grants. BDS' primary customer is the United States Department of Defense (U.S. DoD). Other significant revenues were derived from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA).

6. Further information on Boeing's government contracts and foreign sales can be found in the most recent annual report at
